Introduction

Hi, Hanna:

As you wanted to know more details about me and my town, I'm going to give you some information about it.

As you already know, I'm a 22-year-old student of nursing. I'm from Palma del Río, a beautiful small town in the province of Córdoba, Andalusia (in the South of Spain). If you want to come and visit my town in the future, first I will tell you a little about it.

My town has a population of 22.000 people. It is in the West of Córdoba. There are facilities such as cinema, museums and a theatre. There is also a sports center like the contact with nature, Palma del Río is a perfect place for hiking and canoeing, since there are two rivers here. Guadalquivir and Genil.

There is a very important theatrical event in the month of July: The Southern Theatre Fair. So this period would be perfect if you want to enjoy this festival. But make sure you bring summer clothes, hats and sandals. The weather in Palma del Río is warm in the winter but extremely hot in the summer. It rains very little here.

I must leave you now. I'm very busy with my luggage and the preparations for the trip to Portsmouth.

Yours,
Olga.
