John Nkwelu llegó a Londres hace diez años. ¿De dónde venía? ¿Qué ha cambiado en su vida? ¿Qué ha ido ocurriendo en estos diez años? Vamos a leer una entrevista a este inmigrante nigeriano que llegó a Londres hace 10 años. La entrevista se centra en lo que hizo y en los cambios que han ocurrido en su vida desde entonces. Verás que como él habla de cosas pasadas utilizará los verbos en Pasado Simple.

A: Where do you come from?

John: I come from Nigeria

A: When did you arrive in London?

John: I arrived in 1997, that is, ten years ago.

A: What did you do when you arrived in London?

John: When I arrived at Heathrow Airport, I took the tube and I went to the city centre. I met some friends from Nigeria that afternoon.

A: Why did you come to London?

John: Because I wanted to live in a big city.

A: Did you find a job easily?

John: No, not really; I spent a week looking for a job.

A: Where did you get your first job?

John: I got my first job in a hotel, as a receptionist.

Esta es la última parte de la entrevista con John Nkwelu:

A: Did you make new friends easily?

John: Yes, I did; people here are very nice . When I started working at the hotel, I met Rasul and he helped me very much.

A: Was Rasul your colleague at the hotel?

John: Yes, he was. Rasul worked at the hotel's kitchen.

A: Did you like the job at the hotel?

John: No, not really . I didn't like the job very much: I worked at weekends, at night, and the salary wasn't good so I decided to look for another job. I found some other jobs, and finally I got a job as a waiter in a restaurant in the East End. I met Sarah, my girlfriend, in that restaurant.

A: What is your present job, John?

John: I found a job in a better restaurant last December.

A: Do you like it?

John: Yes, very much. The salary is very good, and I don't work on Sundays.
