

Tema 1: I Love UK.

Presta atención a este breve diálogo entre Olga y su compañera de piso:

Mary: Hi, Olga! What are you doing?

Olga: I'm looking for a trip.

Mary: Where do you want to go?

Olga: I would like to visit Scotland, but I love Ireland...

Mary: A difficult decision!

Olga: Oh yes! I hate taking decisions.

Mary: If I were you, I would go to Ireland for St. Patrick's Day!

Olga: What a wonderful idea! Thanks for your help, Mary!

Si has entendido el texto, verás que las expresiones en negrita están expresando gustos o preferencias. En este bloque vas a aprender a expresarlos también de diferentes formas. No son muy complicadas, así que continuemos aprendiendo inglés.

1. A man tired of London...

Ahora lee el siguiente diálogo entre nuestra protagonista Olga y Mary:

Mary: Did you take a decision about your trip?

Olga: As I told you, I'm going to go to Northern Ireland. I have found a cheap trip to Londonderry.

Mary: Wow! There, they celebrate St. Patrick's with an amazing parade!

Olga: Yes, I love parades!

Mary: Are you going to spend all your free days there?

Olga: Oh no, I have to fly from London, so I will spend a couple of days there. I like being there very much!

Mary: What are you going to do there?

Olga: Well, I like visiting museums and monuments. However, I don't have much time to go to the British Museum, so I will walk by the river to see the Tower Bridge in the morning, I enjoy walking. After lunch, I will go to see The House of Parliament and the Big Ben. Also, I could visit Westminster Abbey.

Mary: Will you enter those monuments?

Olga: I don't know, because I hate crowded places and I know there will be a lot of people there those days. I don't like waiting to get into places either.

Mary: Anywhere else?

Olga: Yes. If I have time, I will walk up to St. Paul's Cathedral...

Mary: Olga, you are going to walk a lot! I dislike walking. You'll be tired for your trip!

Olga: Ha, ha, ha. It's true, but I don't mind.

1 Contesta a estas preguntas en tu cuaderno:

1. Where is Olga going to go for her trip?

She is going to Londonderry, in North Ireland.

2. What is celebrated during her trip?

St. Patrick's.

3. What places does Olga mention in London?

She talks about the Tower Bridge, The House of Parliament and Big Ben, Westminster Abbey and St. Paul's Cathedral.

4. Why does Mary think Olga's day will be tiring?

Because Olga wants to go walking everywhere.

2. I would love it!

La conversación entre Olga y Mary va a continuar. Ahora Mary está interesada en algo más que el simple turismo por Londres:

Mary: Olga, I know you love shopping. Are you going shopping during those days in London?

Olga: I would like to go, but I will only spend two days there. Maybe, if I have enough time, I would love to buy some new clothes or some souvenirs for my family.

Mary: Will you go to Harrods?

Olga: Oh no! I like the building, but I dislike what they sell.

Mary: Yes, it's quite classical. What is your favourite place for shopping then?

Olga: In London? Many places are OK, but I think that Camden is the best. You can find really strange things there, but also cool things. Besides, you can eat a lot of different and international food too.

Imagen de elaboración propia

Mary: I agree. The people and the colourful houses are really different! And, what about Covent Garden? It is also a wonderful place!

Olga: Wait! It will be Saturday, so I'd rather go to Notting Hill and visit Portobello Market.

Mary: Portobello? On Saturday? Olga, that is mainly an antique market. Are you serious?

Olga: Honestly, I enjoy the place very much, but I never buy anything there! I just enjoy watching the antique stalls.

Mary: Oh!

Tema 2: .If I had free days ...

En este tema vamos a estudiar las oraciones condicionales, es decir, oraciones que indican que una acción solo tiene lugar si se produce una condición determinada.

2.1 St. Patrick in Ireland.

Nota: San Patricio es celebrado en muchas partes del mundo, principalmente porque históricamente los irlandeses han sido un pueblo emigrante. Este santo es, por lo tanto, el Santo Patrón de ambas irlandas y de muchos irlandeses del mundo, especialmente de los Estados Unidos.

Olga ha publicado en las redes sociales su próxima visita a Londonderry. Hoy ha recibido un e-mail de un amigo que conoció cuando era estudiante, Alex, quien es irlandés. Él conoce bien la ciudad y qué puede hacer esos días allí:

Hi Olga!

How are you? I'm writing you because I read that you are going to visit Londonderry. If you go, you will enjoy a wonderful place. Did you know it is the second biggest city in Northern Ireland? It is very near the Republic of Ireland too. I know it very well because my cousins live and work there. It is a great idea to visit North Ireland at St. Patrick's Day (17th March). If you like music and colour, you will like St. Patrick's parade. Also, there are some music festivals. People wear colourful costumes, mainly green. Do you like typical food? If you want a lot of energy, try an Irish Breakfast. It includes potatoes, tomatoes, eggs, sausages and much more. If you want something different, you can visit the Food Festival too. I think it is enough so far.

I hope hearing from you soon

Alex

PS: Don't say Londonderry, they prefer saying just Derry.

parade: desfile                      costumes: trajes, disfraces                      so far: por el momento

¿Has leído bien el texto? Antes de contestar a las preguntas asegúrate de entenderlo todo. Ayúdate con un diccionario si te quedan dudas.

2. I would visit Edinburgh.

Ya queda muy poco para que Olga se marche a Derry. Mary tiene un poco de envidia sana por ella, por eso siguen hablando de viajes:

Mary: You are so lucky!

Olga: Oh yes! I'm sorry that you haven't got any free days to come.

Mary: I would love it. But, honestly, if I had free days, I would visit Edinburgh. I like it very much and it is my favourite city. It is an exciting place.

Olga: Edinburgh, in Scotland? But you were there last summer.

Mary: It's true, but if I had time and money, I would visit it more often.

Olga: It sounds strange! Mary, if you had a secret, would you tell me?

Mary: What do you mean?

Olga: We are good friends and you know I always support you.

Mary: Ok, ok! I have something to tell you!

Olga: Come on! What?

Mary: I met someone last summer. His name is Michael, he is awesome!

Olga: Ha, ha, ha! I knew it.
