

During this exercise you have to complete the following sentences by filling the gaps. After that rearrange the sentences so they are in order.

Cecilia Payne-Gaposchkin

Although she _____ her studies in 1922 she couldn't get her _____ until 1948 because the college refused to delivered it because she was a woman.

Cecilia Payne-Gaposchkin _____ in Wendover, England, on 10 May _____.

In 1925 she _____ her PhD about the _____ composition of stars in which she discovered that stars are mostly made of hydrogen and _____.

She finally got her _____ on astronomy in _____.

Thanks to her intellectual _____ she got a _____ for studying at Cambridge University in _____

In 1943 she was _____ as member of American Academy of Arts and _____.

After finishing her studies at _____ she could find a post at Harvard College Observatory in 1923 for becoming an _____.

After that she _____ the first person on getting a PhD on _____ at Radcliffe University, part of the Harvard University.

Ten years after that she stopped _____ and started working at Smithsonian Astrophysical _____.

_____ from 1927 to 1938 she didn't have an _____ post, just a non well paid job.

She died on _____ at Cambridge, Massachusetts.

She became the first woman _____ in Harvard University in 1956.

