History

It's a British Overseas Territory located at the southern tip of the Iberian Peninsula. It has an area of 6.7 km<sup>2</sup> and is bordered to the north by Spain. The landscape is dominated by the Rock of Gibraltar at the foot of which is a densely populated town area, home to over 30,000 people, primarily Gibraltarians.

In 1704, Anglo-Dutch forces captured Gibraltar from Spain during the War of the Spanish Succession on behalf of the Habsburg claim to the Spanish throne.

Places to visit

The most important place to visit is the rock. You can climb to the top of the rock and go to the viewpoint to see the views accompanied by the monkeys. You can go up by bus or by cable car.
