

LISTENING STRATEGIES

Is your listening fuzzy?

Do you often have information gaps?

Would you like to improve it?

- Read the instructions carefully.
- Make sure you understand what is asked of you in the task.
- Don't write the first time around, just listen intently!
- Try to predict what you are going to hear from the information given.
- Try to pinpoint the information asked for in the task.
- Don't change your answer, more often than not, the change will be incorrect, especially if you are doubting.
