

TRADUCCIÓN EN INGLÉS DEL CUENTO "LAS HADAS DE LAS FRUTAS" extraído de cuentoscortos.com

THE FAIRIES OF THE FRUITS

There was once a distant kingdom in which the fruits were growing in all the gardens. All the houses were decorated by fruits baskets and in all there were fruit-bearing trees reached on flowerpots. But the children of this kingdom did not want to eat fruit. Its parents, who did not know what to do, they called the fairies of the fruits so that they were trying to solve it.

The fairies discovered that an evil witch had made believe to the children that the fruits were poisonous and, that's why the children did not want to prove the fruit.

Fairy Sandía him said to its sisters fairies:

Wanted, we have a mission to be fulfilled. We have to demonstrate to the children that the fruit is good.

Fairy Apple answered:

How are we going to do it? This witch has convinced them that what they must do is to eat bric-a-brac.

Fairy Grape had an idea:

I know already! We can prepare desserts and sweets with fruit so that they do not know what is what they take. When they see that they have eaten fruit and it has not happened to them surely at all they become convinced of that they were wrong.

Orange fairy said to him:

It is a fantastic idea! I will prepare an orange juice refreshment to absorb the fingers.

Fairy Mandarina said:

I prepared tangerine segments with chocolate.

Fairy Fresa signed up to the idea of the chocolate.

Fairy Manzana offered to prepare a cake and Fairy Pera cheered up to prepare other one also.

Fairy Watermelon, Fairy Grapes and Fairy Melon, together with other

Fairies of different fruits, prepared ice creams, sherbets and even Fruit

Pastilles done with fruits.

And when everything was ready, they spoke with the queen to organize a big holiday in the royal palace, to which all the children came, thinking that they were going to discover the secret sweets of the queen.

The children, who did not know that everything was a thing of the fairies of the fruits, proved all the desserts and sweets, and they were pleased.

When the holiday ended, the queen spoke to the children:

- Have you liked the holiday?
- Yes, very much! - it was they who answered.
- And are you well? - the queen asked again.

The queen ordered them to go on to the kitchens of palace, where the fairies of the fruits were waiting for them with all the ingredients of what they had eaten. The children it was not possible to believe that that one so good was done by fruit really.

The smallest threw themselves to prove the fresh fruit.

- What good is! - they shouted.

And this way he was like the fairies of the fruits they demonstrated to the children that the fruit not only is good, but also it is delightful.